

August 27, 2015

www.optimistclubofarlingtonva.org

The Optimist Monthly

Friend of Youth

Upcoming Events

September

9/02: Our Annual "Respect for Law Day" will be keynoted by a presentation on "Keeping Arlington Safe" by Murray "Jay" Far, a 23-year veteran of the Arlington Police department, (who was appointed our Chief of Police this past May). Thank you, Jim Almand, for again organizing this annual "Respect for Law Day" event for the Arlington Optimists, which honors our Arlington law enforcement leaders. WGCC at 12:15.

9/16: Everyone Deserves a Second Chance. Gail Arnall, Executive Director, Offender Aid and Restoration (OAR), a non-profit organization at

August

8/05: "More Than a Bookstore!" Eileen McGervey, founder and owner of One More Page Books, shared the many loves that she incorporates into her unique Arlington bookstore, which hosts exciting programs most nights of the week. She is another Arlington small business success! Thank you, Sue Gartner, for inviting her.

the County Jail that helps non-violent inmates learn skills and receive schooling to prepare them to re-enter society productively. We have been delighted with the OAR participants who have done their community service on our Christmas Tree lot for the past few years. Thank you, Sue Gartner, for this welcome invitation. WGCC at 12:15.

9/23: Meet 'n' Greet. Our monthly Meet 'n Greet returns. Please use this opportunity to invite a prospective member. Willow at 5:30.

10/07: TBA. This meeting will be the first meeting presided over by our new president, Matt Kuhns.

Arlington Optimist Club 16-005
Mid-Atlantic Region 3
Capital- Virginia District 16
Northern Virginia Zone 4

Also, we were proud to induct Clayton Depue into the Club. Clayton has been a resident of Arlington for many decades, but in a prior life, he was president of his Optimist Club in Boulder, Colorado.

Clayton was formally sponsored and introduced by our Membership Chairwoman, Tricia O'Hara. Please take time at our next luncheon to welcome him.

